COMMENTS FROM THE FIELD

"This was our first Wilderness Volunteer trip and we were not disappointed. The food was amazing, the leaders were well prepared and the projects we participated in were worthwhile. The location and daily views also couldn't be beat!"

-Emily Allen, King Range National Conservation Area, CA

"These are things that WV specifically does well: Educates volunteers. You didn't assume we know the LNT principles. They were explained well and WV practices what they preach. There are well thought out protocols and practices for virtually everything from food, menus, job lists, camp cleanliness, to tool use and practical necessities like how the latrines function etc. No assumptions are made. All is explained which helps volunteers know how to participate most effectively. The gear lists are great and helps volunteers know what to bring. I really appreciate the organization and preplanning that goes into every trip. I'll be back for more!"

-Rene Rosen-Rager, Mono Creek Trail, Sierra National Forest, CA

"Every trip I have been on has been a rewarding experience and has generated a feeling of accomplishment due to the dedication and hard working organizers and staff at Wilderness Volunteers. The organization gets an A + in my book every time."

-Ed Leonard, Red River Gorge, Daniel Boone National Forest, KY
